Meet your driver guide at the cruise terminal and you will be transported in a luxury executive vehicle to Dublin City Centre. Enjoy a panoramic tour with your driver guide as you approach the famous Guinness Storehouse. Enjoy a self-guided tour of the storehouse and a pint in the Gravity Bar.

About Dublin: With a population of about 1.2 million people, Dublin is the largest city in Ireland, and was established in 988 AD by Viking settlers, who settled near [what was then known as] the Black Pool. These Norse settlers referred to the Black Pool in their mother tongue as Dyfflin, and –by the time the English arrived on our shores in 1169 AD –Dyfflin was gradually anglicised as Dublin. Whilst the English Crown exerted power over Ireland from this time onwards, it was not until the Act of Union of 1800 that Ireland formally became part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain & Ireland. In the years leading up to, and during this period, Dublin was transformed from a medieval city to a modern European Capital!

The Guinness Storehouse: With over 1 million visitors per year, this is the biggest tourist attraction in Ireland. Set in the centre of one of the world's most famous breweries, Guinness Storehouse is Dublin's 'must-see' visitor attraction! The Guinness Storehouse is a dramatic story that begins over 250 years ago and ends in Gravity, the bar in the sky, with a complimentary pint of Guinness, and an astonishing view of Dublin! You'll also see how Guinness has been advertised over the years. But most of all, you will see how Guinness has shaped the socio-economic history of Dublin and indeed Ireland.

Enjoy a self-guided tour of the Guinness Storehouse and then after a pint of Guinness in the gravity bar, return to the ship.
